Cranfill Sumner & Hartzog Attorney Appointed to North Carolina Legal Education Assistance Foundation

(May 3, 2010) — Cranfill Sumner & Hartzog LLP (www.cshlaw.com), a corporate and civil defense litigation firm, announces today that attorney William Pollock of the Raleigh office has been appointed to the board of directors of the North Carolina Legal Education Assistance Foundation (www.ncleaf.com).

NCLEAF is the nation's first statewide loan repayment assistance program for attorneys working in public-service careers. Since the first funding cycle in 1991, NCLEAF has provided more than $3 million in loan repayment assistance to more than 300 public-service attorneys.

“It is an honor to serve on the board of NCLEAF,” says Pollock. “I have a great deal of respect for attorneys that chose careers in the public interest and public services sectors, and support the mission of NCLEAF to help assure skilled legal counsel is available to everyone, regardless of their economic position.”

Pollock is co-chair of Cranfill Sumner & Hartzog's liability litigation section and concentrates his practice in construction law, environmental and toxic torts, product liability and trucking. He also serves as a director of the North Carolina Association of Defense Attorneys, and was selected to the North Carolina Legal Elite for construction law by Business NC magazine.
