ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Come be a part of this first of its kind event for the legal communities of the Carolinas! Perfect for both new-comers and experienced professionals in the world of international arbitration, the discussion will center on practical and applicable skills of the day. CLE Credit will be available for members of the SC Bar. This event is ideal for members of the judiciary, practitioners of all skill levels and professionals who participate in cross-border operations. Reserve your spot today!

NOTE: Although the conference begins on August 10 we are currently in the works of putting together a small happy-hour/open forum discussion in conjunction with The Alliance addressing the topic of gender, ethnic and cultural diversity and inclusion in the practice of international arbitration. This event would be the evening before on Thursday, August 9.

This seminar is an intermediate level program.

This program qualifies for 5.25 MCLE credit hours.
